Good wintery days to you, Elim –

These cold, wet stretches have afforded me wonderful hours of study and planning. I hope you have found fulfilling, warm activities as well!

One of the things I've learned and shared in worship is about a first-century fishing boat found by the Sea of Galilee in 1986. Scientific dating techniques place the boat in Jesus' time or shortly thereafter. This boat was mostly built from low-quality materials and held together with wooden plugs and resin, but it was tended to and reused for decades. It might have even been used for a century! The boat was obviously made by skilled, resourceful people who had a healthy dose of ingenuity. These were probably pretty darned good qualities for disciples of Jesus!

I've also been reading some of the history of the church and thinking of us today in its lineage. The generations of Elim are filled with do-ers who saw needs and dreamed up ways to meet the needs. As a small, tangible, current example, I've never seen a post coming down from a kitchen ceiling with electrical outlets. Obviously there was more power needed in our upstairs kitchen (probably for the Swedish Supper?) so someone figured out how to make it work! They are useful outlets and I see them being used often! I feel like the cloud of witnesses of Elim and its people still today are skilled, resourceful people who had and have a healthy dose of ingenuity. I love getting to be with you as the church!

As we continue discerning God's call to us collectively and individually into this new year and decade, may we hold on to our tradition which is so dear and think anew as well. You are good at this! I've read of it in the pages of your history and I've seen it in you during these first four months together. You are thoughtful, willing, creative do-ers. You love each other even if you don't agree with each other about everything which is exactly what we are called to do as God's people. I appreciate this very moment with you and look forward to becoming with you as well. Cheers to the strong line of disciples of Christ from which we come and into which we live.

--Pastor Amy Kay

An added note: There are Sundays and seasons in which it would be wonderful to be able to use added fabric creatively to accentuate elements of worship. If you are creative, enjoy dreaming up ways to make worship a thin place with God for everyone and don't mind working with Amy Kay, please see her about an ad hoc type of group.

Please keep in prayer: Darren Ebling (Donna Elvin's grandson), Al Seadore, Marti Bauer, Beth Thomas, Bob Jones, Mindy Nicholson, Susan Hamma, Ebba Nelson, Sawyer Nelson, Callie Rost (Mari Loder's sister), Norm Yenkey (Mari Loder's father), Twila Lindfors, Diane Deckard, LeAnn Everhart, Mary Sommerfeld, Jill Timmons, Nathan Gray (Lana Rock's great nephew), Rhonda McEachern (Rita Brown's sister), LaReta Olson, and Debbie Brown.

Elim strives to extend the power of prayer to those who feel they would benefit from it. New prayer requests will be taken at any time. Contact Pastor Amy Kay at 573-808-1980 or email amykay@connectedfairtrade.com, or Wally Bunk, or email elimsec@gmail.com. Please note that the list will renew every three months on April 1, July 1, Oct. 1, and Jan. 1. Names will be removed unless there is notification to keep them on the list. Thank you.

ANNUAL MEETING AND POTLUCK SCHEDULED FOR JANUARY 26, 2020

A report on the highlights of the meeting and the results of the congregational vote will be presented in the March newsletter. We hope you were able to attend.

CHURCH CLOSINGS

Normal church services will be held as scheduled as much as possible. However, in very unusual circumstances, church services may be canceled because of weather or other emergencies. The Pastor, in consultation with the Elim Lutheran Church Council President, will determine the following:

- Cancel or delay church services
- Cancel or delay an event being held on church property

Our primary concern is for the safety of the members of our congregation and their families. We do not want to put individuals in situations where driving to church on dangerous roads is required or where coming to church will subject them to conditions that are not ideal.

For information about cancellations:

- Watch KAKE
- Watch KWCH
- Facebook

Cancellations will occur by 8:00 A.M. on Sunday morning or at least an hour and a half before any other scheduled event. This is to allow for notice to go out before individuals from out of town prepare to come to the church.

WELCA NEWS

WELCA had a busy 2019 year, and we are already off to a good start for 2020. We hope and pray that more women of WELCA will become involved, and give us ideas and wanted events that would be welcomed by WELCA and stay with the goal of community involvement, church assistance, and international attention. Our first WELCA Board meeting (which we welcome any person to attend) was attended by our new Pastor – Amy Kay Pavlovich – and Gayle Nelson, church secretary.

Gayle asked WELCA (and Elim) to become involved with the Christmas Shoebox Project that is organized and led by Fremont Church and their congregation. WELCA voted to do so, and you will get more information about these important “boxes” from Gayle. We can become involved immediately, and the list of needed goods will be asked for each month. They will be “assembled” in November 2020, and Elim can assist by helping with the assembly – or just bring donated items each month. This is a year-long project and very worthwhile.

WELCA also showed support for our community and surrounding communities by agreeing to donate $200 to “Bethlehem Revisited” – an event that those 34 who attended in December 2019 truly enjoyed. They do NOT charge any admission, so the donation will show that Elim hopes the experience will continue in the upcoming December. We also voted to give $100 each to Ashby House and Rescue Mission in Salina. If there are any other worthy causes you would like to see us donate to, please let one of the officers know and we will consider it at our next meeting. You are even welcomed to come to the meeting and give us your suggestion.

WELCA Executive Board discussed other activities for 2020 with the assistance of our new pastor, Rev. Amy Kay. We will be celebrating WELCA Sunday on March 22, 2020 with Julie Olson working with Pastor about the “women of influence in religion”. It will be a learning experience for everyone. WELCA will also be doing a breakfast that morning from 9:30 – 10:55 a.m. Since many people seemed to enjoy the egg casserole, fruit, cinnamon rolls and juice/coffee at our last breakfast, we will be repeating that on March 22, 2020. Please mark your calendars to attend WELCA Sunday and breakfast that day. We will be putting up “volunteer lists” on the bulletin board soon. Please assist us with this busy morning.

In addition, WELCA agreed to assist with Confirmation Sunday on April 19, 2020, by decorating tables for each confirmand and family, and to serve some goodies during the coffee fellowship time of 10:30 – 11:00 a.m. Again, if you want to assist with “goodies”, decorating, or serving, please volunteer to do so by contacting JoAn Lindfors, President of WELCA.

The year is off to a fast pace, but we need your help and volunteering. Please sign up on the bulletin board for the Riverview Birthday parties on the last Friday of the month, and Sing-alongs on the third Sunday of each month at 4:00 p.m. We need volunteers for these very important activities at Riverview Estates. In addition, Beth Thomas has graciously agreed to set up the “Meals on Wheels” for February, 2020, so volunteer for that as well. We couldn’t continue to do the good work of spreading God’s word and works without your continued support. Thank you.

President: JoAn Lindfors; Vice-President: Diane Talbott; Secretary: Jackie Larson; and Treasurer: Cindy Bunk.

SAMARITAN'S PURSE OPERATION CHRISTMAS CHILD

CHRISTMAS SHOEBOX

WELCA has agreed to sponsor a monthly collection of items to help fill the Christmas Shoeboxes for 2020. Freemount Lutheran Church supports the ministry of Samaritan's Purse, an international relief agency who gifts the filled shoeboxes to children all around the world, and brings to them the word of God. Elim is joining with Freemount Lutheran Church and Marquette Methodist Church in gathering items for the shoeboxes throughout the year. These items are then packed in the designated shoeboxes at a
